DR. CURTIS'

Medical Work,

MANHOOD!!

200th Edition Just Issued

—BY—

E. de F. Curtis, M. D., etc.,

AUTHOR OF

"Manhood," "Medical Essays on Marriage," "Exposure of Quacks and Quackery," "The use of the Microscope in Certain Cases of Debility," etc.

A MEDICAL ESSAY ON THE CAUSE OF Premature Decline with directions for its perfect restoration, addressed to those suffering from the destructive effects of Nervous and Physical Debility, Exhausted Vitality, Abuses of the system and all kindred ailments, with instructions on the obligations and objects of Marriage.

This work, of which over 200,000 copies have been issued, is written in a plain and sympathizing manner on the subjects under consideration, WITHOUT any of the professional claptrap of the empiric, but with the experience of the author in his twenty years' treatment of these diseases, which, strange to say, seem to be ignored by the general run of respectable practitioners.

Clergymen, Physicians and most intellectual men of both hemispheres have recommended its perusal, and by reference to the "OPINIONS OF THE PRESS" it will be readily seen in what estimation the work on "MANHOOD" is held.

EXTRACTS

FROM

REVIEWS OF THIS WORK,

Commencing with the Year 1850.

MANHOOD, BY DR CURTIS.—In this age of pretension, when the privileges of the true are constantly usurped by the false and fraudulent, it is difficult to afford the sufferer from nervous debility the unerring means of judgment where to seek relief. The author of this work has obviated the difficulty. His experience and reputation in the treatment of these painful diseases are the patient's guarantee, and well deserve for the work its immense circulation —Era.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD should be in the hands of youth and old age. It is a medical publication, ably written, and develops the treatment of a class of painful maladies which have too long been the prey of the illiterate and designing.—United Service Gazette.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—It develops the fearful shoals on which a large proportion of human happiness is wrecked, and furnishes a chart by which they may be avoided and escaped. Fortunate for a country would it be did its youth put into practice the philanthropic and scientific maxims here laid down—one cause of matrimonial misery might then be banished from our land, and the race of the enervate be succeded by a renewal of the hardy vigorous spirits of the olden time.—Chronicle.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—This is really a valuable work for pointing out the diseases resulting from the excesses the evils of which are manifested in every insane asylum, no less than in the shattered constitution of those indulging, it will do much to prevent the vice which, by its prevalence among the young, has so much influence on the present as on the future well-being of many.—Herald.

DR. CURTIS' WORK, ENTITLED "MANHOOD," is one of the few books now coming before the public on a subject which can lay claim to the character of being strictly professional, at the same time that it is fully intelligible to all who read it. The moral and medical precepts given in it render it invaluable.—Magnet.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—This is truly a valuable work, and it should be in the hands of young and old. The professional reputation of the author, combined with his twenty years' experience as medical referee in the treatment of nervous debility, etc., fully accounts for the immense circulation which his popular and ably-written medical treatise has obtained.—Sunday Times.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—This work, which for twenty years has stood the test of professional criticism and empirical hostility, treats in a plain and sympathizing manner on the various disqualifications and impediments arising from nervous excitement and debility; and to invalids suffering from youthful errors and excesses it will be found valuable and useful.—Record.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—The author has conferred a great boon on society by publishing this little work, in which are described those diseases which produce decline in youth, or, more frequently, premature old age.—Daily Telegraph.

CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—It is the duty of all men to study the laws of their body no less than those of their mind. In the pages of this work will be found golden rules for regulating the one and preserving the other.—Mark Lane Express.

DR. E. De F. CURTIS

Having received several inquiries as to the professional qualifications of the above gentleman, we take pleasure in publishing the following testimonial, received in answer to our inquiries, from the Secretary of the Eclectic Medical College. The Doctor has apparently some reason to be proud of the good opinions he has gained elsewhere:

OFFICE OF THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL COLLEGE OF THE CITY OF N. Y., 137 WEST 47TH ST., } NEW YORK, March 1, 1876.

EDITOR NEWS LETTER:—Dear Sir: Yours of February 21st received. We are happy to be able to inform you that Dr. Curtis holds a diploma signed by some of the most eminent men in the country—one which our college recognizes. Our acquaintance with the Doctor, his position, professional merit and standing, is such that our College, according to its charter, conferred upon him our ad eundem degree. Allow me to refer to one of his references in this city a gentleman of great distinction and high position, Robert F. Noah, First Assistant Corporation Attorney of New York City, also one of the owners, editors and publishers of (Noah's) Sunday Times. He said in a letter to our College: "I have known Dr. Curtis for a period of over twelve years professionally and socially, and cheerfully testify that he is in every way a gentleman of high standing, a great student and linguist, with an excellent reputation for professional ability." Our College is in possession of much information of a similar character. Yours truly,

ROBERT S. NEWTON, M. D., Sec. E. M. College.

N. B.—Hours of Consultation, daily from 10 A. M. to 2 P. M., and from 6 to 8 in the evening. On Sundays from 11 A. M. to 2 P. M. only. No. 520 Sutter street between Powell and Mason, San Francisco, Cal.

COUNTING THE VOTE.

Senator Booth, in his very eloquent effort upon his resolutions, very truthfully suggests that the reason for excluding a postmaster from the position of a Presidential Elector has by custom and a change in conditions of parties ceased to be of vitality. This, however, does not do away with the constitutional provision, nor does it give the Congress any power over the question. As has been said by one of large experience in our national affairs, if there was any one thing sought by the framers of the Constitution to guard against, it was congressional interference in the election of President. And to such an extent did they carry this intent that a Senator or Representative in Congress (no matter what his worth or ability or patriotism) was in terms rendered ineligible as elector. If they were not eligible as electors, how can it be contended that they may as a body or otherwise control the electoral vote? If it had been so understood, the question might easily have been placed beyond cavil by provision for Congress to enquire into the qualifications of persons chosen as electors, and, if ineligible, reject them; or that Congress might for any other cause go behind the returns. But such is not the fact. It has been suggested by another not unused to consider the question, that the Senate and House of Representatives should be present when the certificates were opened merely as witnesses, as to a deed or will.

There was another object in their presence: that was, that in case there was no one who received the requisite number of votes to elect, it was made the duty of the House to immediately elect by ballot from the three highest on the lists returned by the electors a President, and the Senate should likewise elect a Vice-President. The object of this was, as suggested by Senator Booth, that not even the electors should know; or, if they did, should tell, who was elected President or Vice-President until the vote was counted; and, for the same reason, to avoid any foreign or corrupt influence.

The plan of submitting the question to the Supreme Court is equally objectionable with that of allowing Congress to make the President. Both are unconstitutional. It may be that the Constitution ought to be changed in regard to the election of President, to meet the advanced condition of our political growth; but while we have a Constitution as it is, it cannot be contended that it should be violated in this, more than any other provision. It is argued by some would-be constitutional oracles that during the war the Constitution was so often violated that it might be violated now without serious injury. Such people seem to forget that war rises above all Constitution and law, and the power is then in the armies and not in any forms of law. But in peace, the Constitution and laws must be paramount or the government is at an end.

The plain letter of the Constitution, the traditions and practices of the government since the Constitution was adopted, are and have been that the lists returned by the electors appointed by the several States in the manner directed by their legislatures, shall be opened by the President of the Senate and counted. Why should this be departed from now? Because there are people who believe on the one side that Hayes is elected, and on the other that Tilden is elected? The beliefs of the people, the prejudices and passions of the people, were intended in this country to be limited and controlled by the Constitution until changed, as is provided for therein. But it is said by some, where there is such a difference of opinion as to who is elected, run the race over; or, as others—Republicans—say, rather than fight, let Tilden have it. If such concessions could and would always be made; if parties thus succeeding could and would be content to reciprocate, and things could thus be settled, rather than suffer the horrors of civil war, the proposition might be worthy of consideration. But when it is once admitted that popular party feeling and prejudice may induce a violation of the Constitution and of right by compromise, then farewell to this form of government. Then, as inevitable as destiny, anarchy, then despotism, and the destruction of the liberties of the people. Rather let the President of the Senate in the face of the returns declare Tilden elected than that any compromise be made on such a question violating as it would the Constitution.

Cardinal McCloskey is going to Rome, it is said in clerical circles, as soon as his health will permit, and on his return he will bring the Pope's bull for the consecration of the pastor of St. Stephen's as Coadjuter Bishop of New York.

The disturbance in a Floyd avenue house last Thursday did not rise from a dispute about the returns from Florida, as many supposed, but grew out of the fact that the mother of the family found her oldest son tampering with the sacredness of the preserved quinces.—[Rome Sentinel.

"The English and Americans," says the Spectator, "are great peoples, with a genius for mechanical inventions, but they cannot build a theatre so that spectators can get out of it, or a railway train so that it can be patrolled from the outside, or a street so that it shall be at once silent and safe for horses."

Mr. Trinidad Romero is the delegate recently elected to Congress from the Territory of New Mexico. He is a native, speaking English, and a merchant, contractor, and sheep owner, who, though still young, has made a fortune with the help of his brother, from a nest-egg of only $1,000.

This is Colorado's best cat story: A cat had alternately lived in three families in a neighborhood. She had four kittens, and, as soon as they were able to take care of themselves, she carried one to each of her two former residences and left it, retaining two with herself. The desired, it seems, to secure good homes for her progeny.

The London Spectator says of Mr. Tennyson's last effort: "'Harold' is a fine dramatic piece, and has more fire and rapid movements in it than 'Queen Mary,' but we cannot agree with those who think that 'Harold' is equal to, much less superior to, Mr. Tennyson's study of the morbid hopes and gloomy reverses of the great Tudor wreck."

The present Sultan of Turkey seems to be more of a Turk than his two predecessors who were dethroned last year. He has publicly announced that in case of war he himself will lead his army; and he adds that, in this event, he will look for the co-operation of all his subjects of every faith. There is no doubt that the Turk will make a fierce struggle if Russia should invade her soil.

The name "Central" seems to be an unlucky one for railroads. The Vermont Central went into the hands of a receiver long ago. The New Jersey Central is in danger of the same fate. The Michigan Central has paid no dividends for four years. The Illinois Central divided only two per cent. for the last six months. The Florida Central is soon to be sold out by the State of Florida. The Great New York Central alone remains unharmed, but its head is gone, and there is no telling what will happen to it. Superstitious people will doubtless make a note of these facts.

The way in which Victor Emanuel enters the Italian Chambers is very characteristic. He advances with a military stride a few steps upon the floor, then stops, looks around, and bows slightly to the hearty greetings which burst from all parts of the House. Then, erect and kinglike, burly as his figure is, he passes alone to the centre, again looks all around, again bows slightly, and turning, takes his seat upon the Chair of State. Prince Humbert and ex-King Amadeus advance with their faces toward his Majesty, pause before him, bow respectfully, and then take the seats upon his right and left, the whole House standing the while and applauding enthusiastically.

George Eliot works very hard, says a London correspondent of The Boston Herald—harder than her rather delicate health warrants—often writing seven or eight hours a day. Before she begins a novel, she not only outlines and arranges it, she so fixes it in her mind that her MS. is often merely a transcript of her elaborate mental preparation. Very far from handsome, she has an intellectual and striking face, too long and angular for symmetry; soft, abundant hair, streaked with gray; a low, sweet voice, a remarkably quiet, somewhat pensive and decidedly winning manner. Some persons do not like her at first, though all her friends, despite her unquestioned plainness, regard her as a charming woman.

The London Times says that M. Jules Simon, as an orator, has few superiors even among a nation of orators, and in persuasive power he has scarcely an equal. His wonderful speech against the Septennate will not soon be forgotten. It alternately enraged and soothed all parties. That the author of it should now have become Prime Minister of France is a fact of much interest and considerable importance. It is one of many proofs that nowhere are the highest prizes of political life more open than in France to unaided personal ability. M. Jules Simon was distinguished as Professor of Philosophy in the Sarbonne before he acquired opportunities of becoming a statesman. He has risen to the front rank in Assemblies which, whatever else they may have lacked, have been richly furnished with ability.

Mrs. Elizabeth Barrett Browning, in [illegible] of her profound and wide knowl[illegible] ...k, Hebrew, Latin, Spanish, ledge of Gre[illegible] ...d English literature, Italian, and French [illegible] ...have made ture—which knowledge might [illegible] her most deeply pedantic—wrote very simple, gay, sweet, girlish letters to K. H. Horne. These have just been printed; but not even now would Mr. Horne have permitted the public to share the treasures of his correspondence, had it not been that the extreme minuteness of the poetess's handwriting, and the fading of the ink, threatened to render her letters very soon entirely illegible. Mr. Horne, after making a noticeable success with his poem of "Orion" in 1843, printed an injudicious volume of cotemporary criticism, which mixed him up in vexatious imbroglios and he disappeared from view for nearly 20 years in the gold-diggings of Australia.

Miss Clara Louise Kellogg is gravely reported to nourish her sweet voice upon a soup made by her admiring mother from beef, potatoes, a little rice, and many onions. The singer observed to a correspondent of the Milwaukee Sentinel that she had never seen so many young girls who think themselves born prima donnas as in Chicago. "Squeak they ever so little they are confident of shining upon the world as an operatic star; but," she added, "I think it more the fault of the music teachers, who, as it pays them, encourage the idea, and while they cannot create a voice in their scholars, unfit them for anything else." Mrs. Kellogg said to the correspondent that her daughter sang several airs when nine months old, and played the piano at three years; that oatmeal made her bilious; that she injured her heel wearing high-heeled boots; that Patti was the only living singer that "the chicken" would take off her hat to; that she was pestered with suitors who would throw themselves at her feet, write her frantic letters, go crazy, and make fools of themselves generally.

NEW TO-DAY.

A CARD.

TO THE RESIDENTS OF OAKLAND.

In compliance with an order received from Mr. Phil. Gerhardy, a butcher doing business on Broadway below Seventh street I killed and yesterday delivered to him six hogs. When I arrived at his place of business he hesitated to take them because it was raining. Finally he agreed to take them, and proceeded to weigh them. According to his weight they weighed 300 pounds. I ordered my man to put them back in the wagon, and he took one of them to the butcher on Third street, between Broadway and Washington, and found that it weighed 157 pounds. I then took the larger one up to Mr. Neller, butcher at the corner of Tenth and Broadway, where it weighed 244 pounds, making the total weight of the two hogs 401 pounds, or 101 pounds more than Mr. Gerhardy claimed. Comment is unnecessary. I leave it with the people of Oakland, to justify or disapprove of such dealings.

A. ELLIOTT.

A REPLY.

The statement of facts in the above card are false and malicious, and can be proved so by reliable and competent witnesses. In the first place, Mr Gerhardy did not order the hogs referred to. Some time previous he asked Mr. Elliott to let him know when he intended to kill another lot of hogs so that he might be ready to take them. Mr. Elliott did not do as requested, but brought the lot of hogs unexpectedly, and at a time when Mr. Gerhardy had engaged a lot to arrive from Walnut Creek. The hogs were not weighed by Mr Gerhardy. One of his employes estimated that two hogs hanging on the scales (it being impossible to weigh the hogs, as they touched the ground) would weigh in the neighborhood of three hundred pounds. There were six hogs in the lot, and there is no evidence that the two hogs referred to in Mr Elliott's card are the ones subsequently sold. The card of Mr. Elliott was published at the instance of jealous business rivals, and the citizens of Oakland who are interested in the matter, may inquire of Mr Gerhardy's reputation and standing, from the hundreds of residents who have had business dealings with here and elsewhere

☞ The facts in the above reply are true.

REDUCTION IN GAS.

Important to Landlords and Gas Consumers.

SAFETY AND ECONOMY.

OFFICE OAKLAND GAS LIGHT CO., September, 16, 1876.

IN CONTINUANCE OF THE POLICY FOLlowed by this Company since its formation, to lower its rates as warranted, the Oakland Gas Light Company hereby give notice, that from and after the 1st day of October next the price of gas will be reduced to $4 PER THOUSAND CUBIC FEET.

Considering the value of coal and labor, the limited use of gas and the distance between the points of consumption, Oakland is one the most cheaply lighted cities in the Union.

Some of the advantages of cheap gas are

1st. A daily saving in the cost of one of th[e] necessaries of life.

2d. A decrease in the number of fires caused by the use of the dangerous distillates of Petroleum.

3d. A saving of human life by substituting stationary lights for the brittle of lamps.

[illegible] ...oped that this further reduction will [illegible] ...ed by the public, and that It is [illegible] ...ny accessions to be favorably accep[ted]... the Company will receive [illegible] the number of its consumers.

V. L. EASTLAND,
Superintendent Oakland Gas Light Co.

1877 THE SUN--NEW YORK. 1877

The different editions of THE SUN during the next year will be the same as during the year that has just passed. The daily edition will on week days be a sheet of four pages, and on Sundays a sheet of eight pages, or 56 broad columns, while the weekly edition will be a sheet of eight pages of the same dimensions and character that are already familiar to our friends.

THE SUN will continue to be the strenuous advocate of reform and retrenchment, and of the substitution of statesmanship, wisdom, and integrity for hollow pretence, imbecility, and fraud in the administration of public affairs. It will contend for the government of the people by the people and for the people, as opposed to government by frauds in the ballot-box and in the counting of votes, enforced by military violence. It will endeavor to supply its readers—a body now not far from a million of souls—with the most careful, complete, and trustworthy accounts of current events, and will employ for this purpose a numerous and carefully selected staff of reporters and correspondents. Its reports from Washington, especially, will be full, accurate, and fearless; and it will doubtless continue to deserve and enjoy the hatred of those who thrive by plundering the Treasury or by usurping what the law does not give them, while it will endeavor to merit the confidence of the public by defending the rights of the people against the encroachments of unjustified power.

The price of the daily SUN will be 55 cents a month or $6.50 a year, post paid, or with the Sunday edition $7.70 a year.

The SUNDAY edition alone, eight pages, $1.20 a year, post paid.

The WEEKLY SUN, eight pages of 56 broad columns, will be furnished during 1877 at the rate of $1 a year, post paid.

The benefit of this large reduction from the previous rate for the WEEKLY can be enjoyed by individual subscribers without the necessity of making up clubs. At the same time, if any of our friends choose to aid in extending our circulation, we shall be grateful to them, and every such person who sends us ten or more subscribers from one place will be entitled to one copy of the paper for himself without charge. At one dollar a year, postage paid, the expenses of paper and printing are barely repaid; and, considering the size of the sheet and the quality of its contents, we are confident the people will consider THE WEEKLY SUN the cheapest newspaper published in the world, and we trust also one of the very best.

Thirty Years OF SUCCESS. Extraordinary Cures.

No More BALD HEADS. No More Gray Hairs.

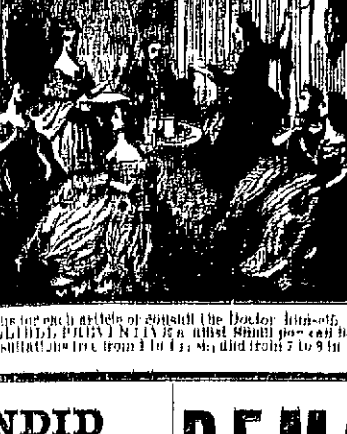

The Great Regenerator of the Blood.

THE FALLING OFF and turning gray of the hair are invariably owing to feebleness of the general health, to impurity or impoverishment of the blood, to an anæmic or chlorotic diathesis. The cause being removed, the effect ceases, "Sublata causa tollitur effectus."

This syrup is wholly vegetable. It cures radically all chronic diseases of the kidneys and of the nervous system; it regulates the blood system, and radically obliterates weaknesses to which many females are subject

The syrup acts powerfully upon the nervous system and circulation of the blood

The Regenerator of the Hair completes the cure began with the Great Regenerator of the Blood. There are three numbers of progressive efficacy. It stops at once the falling off of the hair and makes it grow with new vigor

Bennett's Sentence Deferred.

Ex-Pension Agent Henry C. Bennett was brought before Judge Sawyer yesterday afternoon for sentence, he having been convicted of embezzling Government funds. His counsel moved for an arrest of judgment, on the ground of a deficit in the indictment, which should have charged that the money was entrusted to him, whereas it only charges that the money was on deposit to his credit. A motion for a new trial was made, on the ground that there was no evidence to show that Bennett had appropriated the money to his own use, as alleged in the indictment, and that therefore the verdict was not justified by the evidence. Judge Sawyer said he would examine the matter, and the sentence would stand over until Friday morning.

Concert and Festival.

A concert and festival will be held at Plymouth Avenue Church, on Plymouth avenue near Telegraph avenue, to-morrow evening. The proceeds are devoted to the Worker's Missionary Society. The McGibeny Family will give several of their selections, and at the close of the concert the parlors will be opened and ice cream, etc., served to all who may wish it. Readings and recitations will add to the attractions of the evening. Family tickets of admission are $1; single tickets, 50 cents; children, 25 cents. A pleasant evening's enjoyment will be had by attendants.

Plead Guilty.

A man named Abraham White was arrested yesterday for stealing a pair of boots from the store of Holcomb & Outram, on Broadway. White plead guilty in the Police Court this morning and he will be sentenced to-morrow. Petit larcenists seem to have a great fondness for boots since the streets have become muddy.

A DERNIER RESSORT.

One of the Strongest Pledges on Record.

An Iron-Clad Oath Subscribed to Before Judge Nye.

Physicians and scientists of the present day make an important distinction between a "drunkard" and an "inebriate." The former is defined to be one in the habit of drinking spiritous or fermented liquors for the "love of it," or for the supposed enjoyment the stimulus produces, and who can reform with a slight effort of the will; the latter as a victim of a disease either inherited or acquired by the long-continued use of alcoholic beverages. Drunkenness leads to inebriety. On page 1,184 of Johnson's New Universal Cyclopedia is an article on "Inebriety," contributed by one of the most cultured and distinguished physicians of the present day, Willard Parker, M. D., L. L. D., Professor of Surgery, Columbia College, Medical Department, from which we make the following extract.

"Formerly, inebriety was regarded as a crime, but within a few years science has shown it to be a disease, and institutions have been established for its treatment and cure. Statistics from these institutions have demonstrated—I. Inebriety is a disease, and is curable. II. Relapses may or may not occur. The patients in hospitals for the treatment of inebriates may be divided into three classes, viz: I. Those who by social indulgence, without hereditary taint, have become inebriates. These, as a class, are curable by the aid of an institution. II. Those in whom the disease is inherited, in which cases it manifests itself in paroxysms ("sprees") at variable intervals. These are more difficult to restore to health." Dr. Parker defines the third-class to be those who seem totally depraved, and who manifest no desire for restoration. A few days since a gentleman well-known to community generally, and who resides in this city, affixed his signature to the following extraordinary pledge in the presence of Judge Nye, and took oath to the same. The name of the subscriber to this iron-clad oath is withheld for obvious reasons. Following is a verbatim copy of the document:

CHAMBERS COUNTY AND PROBATE JUDGE ALMEDAA COUNTY.
OAKLAND, Cal., January —— 1877.

In the presence of Almighty God I hereby solemnly swear that from and after this date (namely, the —— day of January, A. D., eighteen hundred and seventy-seven), I will drink no spirituous or malt liquors, wine or cider, neither distilled nor fermented liquors, whether known by the common appellations of "brandy," "rum," "gin," "whiskey," "ale," "porter" or "wine," or under any other name or style whatsoever — or otherwise disguised and "highly recommended," under the name of "tonics" and "bitters." During my future life I will neither take any of the above mentioned liquors as a beverage "nor as medicine," however great may appear to be the necessity—deliberately and intelligently preferring to die rather than live again under the horrible and degrading thralldom that has hitherto blasted all my hopes and aims in life, and bitterly disappointed my friends. Now, therefore, in order to guard as effectually as possible against the possible violating of this (to me) important pledge, I hereby further solemnly swear that from and after this date I will drink no beverage of any kind, not even common water, nor take a cigar, from a bar where intoxicating drinks of any kind are dispensed. So HELP ME GOD.

[Signature.]

Subscribed and sworn to before me this —— day of January, A. D. 1877.

[Signed] STEPH. G. NYE,
County Judge.

LEGAL NOTES.

Scarcely any legal business was transacted to-day at the Courts in the County Building.

A. Marks commenced a suit against M. Scharrman in Justice Fogg's Court yesterday, to recover the sum of $10, alleged as due on a labor account.

H. M. True has commenced suit against Wm. T. Bell, to recover on a promissory note for the amount of $40. The case is before Justice Graham.

The butcher firm of Lafferty & Coursen obtained judgment in Justice Fogg's Court yesterday, against James O'Connell, for $226 28, for meat sold and delivered.

The suit of Chappie, Sallman & Co. vs. E. T. Farrell, was tried in Justice Graham's Court yesterday and judgment given to plaintiffs for $85 81 and costs of suit.

In the suit of H. E. Green vs. E. T. Farrell, taken under advisement yesterday by Justice Graham, a judgment was rendered to-day in favor of plaintiff for $40 40 and costs of suit.

W. F. Boardman, the Township Assessor, has brought suit in Justice Graham's court to obtain judgment for the amount of $70 alleged as due from Thomas O'Neal, on a promissory note.

The legal firm of Costello & Whitehead, yesterday obtained judgment in Justice Graham's Court, against G. W. Bush for $103 and costs of suit. The action was for professional services rendered.

In the suit of R. E. Houghton vs. Wm. Leffingwell, the County Judge this morning rendered judgment in favor of the plaintiff, by default, for restitution of premises, $270 and costs of suit.

Saturday, February 3d, at 10 o'clock, has been set by the Probate Court as the time for hearing the report, final account and petition for distribution of Henry Solara executor of the will of Maria Freiberg deceased.

W. Lee Hamlin has filed with the Clerk of the Probate Court a petition for letters of administration upon the estate of Henrietta C. Hamlin. In his petition he states that deceased left an estate in the County of Alameda, consisting of real property, as follows: About two acres of land in the township of Oakland, near Temescal, being lots 11, 12, 13, 19, 20 and 21 on the Brummagim tract map. The petitioner resides on the said tract with his children. The rents and profits from the said real estate do not exceed $25 per month.

American District Telegraph.

The annual meeting of the American District Telegraph Company took place yesterday, and the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year: James Gamble, President; Geo. S. Ladd, Vice-President; Stephen D. Field, Secretary; M. Greenwood, Superintendent. The above, with Wm. Ashburner, comprise the Board of Directors. The report of the President shows the working of the Company in San Francisco during the past year: Number of miles of wire, 50; number of instruments in houses, 691; number of messengers employed, 67; other employees, 17; making a total of 84. Number of messenger calls answered during the year, 107,898; fire calls, 38; police calls, 223.

From a Distinguished Jurist.

"I have tried the Peruvian Syrup and the result fully sustains your prediction. It has made a new man of me, infused into my system new vigor and energy. I am no longer tremulous and debilitated as when you last saw me, but stronger, heartier, and with larger capacity for labor, mental and physical, than at any time during the last five years." Sold by all druggists.

OAKLAND BREVITIES.

Several showers of hail descended last evening.

Ninety-five lodgers at the City Hall this month.

Jefferson street, below Second, is being filled in with dirt.

John Day, of Oakland, will arrive from the East to-night.

But one arrest made by the police yesterday. The victim was a beggar.

Some important improvements will be made at the Mountain View Cemetery this year.

A grand masquerade ball will be given by the Oakland Turn Verein early in February.

There is an undelivered telegram at Western Union Telegraph office for J. B. Phillips.

The American District Telegraph Company has extended its wires to every quarter in the city.

The shipment of wheat from upcountry precincts was commenced in earnest again yesterday.

County Treasurer Palmer has settled with the State Treasurer. He paid over $225,000 on Tuesday last.

The low marshy ground bounded by Sixth, Third, Adeline and Magnolia streets is covered with water.

Constable Tilley was unable to attend to business yesterday through ill-health. He is out again to-day, however.

Owing to the dullness of the carrying trade, freight trains are being laid off by the Central Pacific Railway people.

Mr. Geo. W. Reed, Deputy County Clerk, is confined to his room by illness. He has symptoms of diphtheria.

A number of unfinished houses in different localities throughout the city suffered during the recent heavy rains.

The matter of increasing the police force will probably come up before the meeting of the City Council Monday evening.

The first of a series of pigeon matches between Captain Bogardus and Crittenden Robinson is advertised to take place to-day, at Oakland Park.

The overland train arrived at the Market street station last night at 9:15. The engine became disabled at Verdi, hence the detention and late arrival.

Isidor Willey and Charles Corbett, two young urchins, are awaiting trial in the City Prison for petit larceny. They are charged with stealing a number of coal oil cans.

Religious meetings will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church on Fourteenth street, to night and to-morrow night. A literary meeting will be held in the vestibule Saturday evening

Thomas Walker, the "boy orator" and celebrated "trance speaker," will lecture in Oakland, at Liberty Hall, on Brush street, between Sixth and Seventh streets, on Friday evening, January 19th.

The Oakland Turn Verein will hold a grand masquerade ball about the middle of February. Extensive preparation are being made and it is the intention to have this ball equal any given in San Francisco.

A foot-race came off on Fourteenth street yesterday, between Tom Kennedy of Oakland and John Gilpin of San Francisco. The stake was $200. Kennedy won the race and money in ten and a half seconds.

There has enough rain fallen during the past forty-eight hours to allow the farmers to plough. If it would now hold up until about the middle of March, a good and fair crop would be raised throughout the State.

Seventy-five thousand dollars have been offered for the Blake property bounded by Clay, Washington, Eleventh and Twelfth streets, and the buildings thereon. The sum of $100,000 is asked for the block by the administrator of the estate of Blake.

Frank Williams, the youth whom Officer Williams caught clothed in his mother's last year's petticoats, will be tried in the Police Court to-morrow, on a charge of petit larceny, for stealing a number of squirrel traps from the premises of Walter Blair.

A red-shirted sailor, who had more benzine aboard than he could make sail with, was observed standing off and on Broadway, below Sixth street, this afternoon about 1 o'clock. Officer Barnett hove in sight, and before this has probably towed the old hulk into anchorage at the City Hall.

A colored man named Chas. Sampson is under arrest for stealing a watch from the vest of a carpenter at work on Center street some time ago. The knight of the plane had left his vest hanging on the limb of a tree while he was at work, and the watch was abstracted. A charge of burglary has been entered against Sampson.

Friends of the TRIBUNE are invited to visit this office at 12 o'clock to-night to witness the execution of the compositor who yesterday transposed a line in the article about the Main Lake Sewer. The apprentice who set up "carbolic acid gas" for "carbosic acid gas," in an editorial on "The Artificial Production of Rain," has already been cremated.

Owing to the dampness of the pavement in front of the railway depot on Seventh street, near Broadway, the members of the "Micawber Brigade" have been compelled during the last two days to adjourn to more comfortable barracks. This movement on their part has allowed travelers to enter and depart from the waiting-room with a facility heretofore unequalled.

She came tripping along down Broadway last evening, carrying an open umbrella, a package of sugar, another of rice, a small bottle of syrup, and a beautiful white poodle. A sudden gust of wind turned the umbrella inside-out; she screamed, dropped the bottle of syrup, slipped and sat down on the poodle. The package of sugar rolled into the gutter and helped to sweeten the Broadway rivulet. But she still held on to the rice. A gentlemanly drygoods clerk helped her to arise; she gathered up the fragments of her umbrella, tenderly raised the flattened remains of the poodle and hurriedly departed, and all whom she passed knew by the peculiar light in her eyes that she wouldn't say anything about it when she reached home.

HOBART'S SHOT-GUN.

An Audacious Burglar Defies the Thunder.

Mr. J. A. Hobart's residence has been entered by burglars several times during the past year, and they have taken various articles of more or less value. These continued acts of molestation have had the effect of chafing the owner's mind to a considerable extent, and he went to a gunshop the other day and purchased a fine double-barreled shotgun. He loaded it carefully with a double handful of goose shot, set it up against the bed-post and grimly waited for the midnight prowlers to put in their accustomed appearance. Two or three nights passed and no buglars having made their visits, Mr. Hobart supposed he had got rid of them for good. He left the house unoccupied last night and when he returned this morning, found that the audacious burglars had broken in and carried off the shot-gun He proposes to mount a small-sized Gatling now and stay by it till the thief comes again if it takes all summer.

A CURIOUS AFFAIR.

A Supposed Burglary Robbed of Its Romance.

At the residence of J. F. Betanoue, on Bay Place, near Telegraph avenue, a private party was given last evening. While the festivities were raging tumultuously, and musical strains were wafting themselves upon the chilly air of night, some bold scapegrace, not having the fear of the law, nor the wrath of the residents of the house before his unholy face, noisely entered the upper apartments of the dwelling and vigorously applied himself to the task of disarranging the furniture, ransacking bureau drawers, and creating a state of chaos generally. The contumacious prowler after mischief secured possession of three rings, and hurled them out of a window. They were the only articles removed from the house and were found in the yard, under some shrubbery, this morning. Great consternation prevailed for a time among the household and guests; a policeman was summoned, but no trace of the michief-maker could be found. The affair is thought to be either the work of some maliciously inclined person or of an idiotic thief. No other conclusion can reasonably be arrived at, as nothing was taken from the premises, and valuables were left lying in the yard as stated.

Oakland Methodist Church.

The Pacific Methodist of to-day says: There were eleven accessions to the church in Oakland on Sunday the 7th, eight by letter and three on probation. The ladies of the congregation at their recent Bazaar netted $500. The church took a collection about three weeks ago amounting to $1,200, to apply on indebtedness. The congregations are good and there is a growing interest in the services. Regular services were held every evening last week. The outlook is promising.

HELD TO ANSWER.

"Liverpool Jack" Examined in the Police Court—Ordered to Appear Before the Next Grand Jury.

The preliminary examination of John Creed alias "Liverpool Jack" on a charge of highway robbery, took place in the Police Court this morning, Mr. Henry Vrooman appearing for the prisoner and Deputy District Attorney McKee attending to the prosecution. It will be remembered that on the 20th of December Mr. R. C. Ogden was knocked down, garroted, beaten and robbed of a watch and chain and a gold ring. The affair took place about four hundred yards beyond the terminus of the San Pablo avenue horse car railway. He recognized but one of his assailants and from his description the police immediately settled upon an ex-convict, "Liverpool Jack," as the party described. It was reported at the City Hall on the morning of the 21st that Jack and a companion had taken supper the night before at the Three-Mile House, kept by Lambert, and had left without paying for the same. Officers were detailed by Captain Rand to watch the ferry boats, and last Monday Jack was apprehended just as he was about to depart for San Francisco by the 8 o'clock boat. At

THE EXAMINATION

This morning, Mr. Vrooman examined witness as attorney for Jack. Mr. R. C. Ogden was first called and told his story in a straightforward manner. He said his arms were pinioned by the prisoner while the fellow-robber went through his pockets, took his watch and chain, thence from and wrenched a gold ring off his finger. He testified positively that the defendant was one of the assailants. The affair took place about 7 o'clock in the evening, and the tussle lasted some three minutes. The barkeeper at Lambert's Hotel testified that Jack and a companion took supper at the Three Mile House on the evening of the 20th, at 6 o'clock and left shortly after without settling the score He also positively identified Jack. The prosecution rested, and for the defense

JACK WAS SWORN.

His statement was that he and one Tom Garvey, came from San Francisco on the afternoon of the 20th, and went to Hosteller & Co's slaughter house in search of work. Not finding the parties he and his companion turned toward the ferry again, and when in front of Lambert's Garvey proposed to go in and take supper and stay all night. He consented; they had supper and he stayed at the restaurant some three quarters of an hour, when a feeling of loneliness came over him. He walked down to the horse cars on San Pablo avenue, rode into Oakland, borrowed half a dollar from John Tierney the saloon-keeper on Broadway near Seventh street; got aboard the 8 o'clock train and went to San Francisco. A barkeeper giving the name of Charles Johnson testified that Jack was in his saloon on Kearny street at half past nine, on the night of the 20th, and the case was submitted without argument. Judge Jayne summed up the case in a few words. He said the testimony as to the robbery and the identification of the prisoner was clear and direct. The evidence of the prisoner himself went to show that he was in the immediate neighborhood at the time the transaction took place, and he should order the prisoner to be held to appear before the next Grand Jury in the sum of $2,000.

Burglar Sentenced.

Judge Nye this morning sentenced John Daley to a term of five year's imprisonment in San Quentin. Daley's crime consisted of breaking into and robbing the premises of James Gibbons, on December 27th. He has been sent up before from this county for felony, and is supposed to have been the partner of "Liverpool Jack," who garroted and robbed R. C. Ogden on San Pablo avenue, December 20th.

A New Paper.

The town of San Leandro is soon to have a Democratic weekly newspaper. Its proprietors are to be R. M. Saul, ax attache of the San Francisco Mint, and Charles Pratt, both residents of the ex-County Seat. A newspaper properly conducted in the locality mentioned, should have a paying patronage.

A Light Sentence.

This morning in the County Court Judge Nye passed sentence upon Charles Powers, convicted of petit larceny. He was sentenced to three months in the County Jail. Powers is the young man who stole a small sum of money from the slaughter house of Hostetter & Hayes on the 22d of November.

The Rainfall.

The amount of rain that has fallen recently as given by Mr. Hutchinson's pluviometer is as follows: Tuesday, 35 100 inches; Wednesday, to 12 o'clock M., 68-100 inches; to 7 o'clock this morning, 38-100 inches. Total 1.36; making total rainfall of this season, 6.86-100.

Election of Officers.

The semi-annual election of the Union Sewing Society, I. O. G. T., took place yesterday afternoon and resulted as follows: Mrs. G. A. Adams, President; Mrs. W. L. Cropper, Vice President; Mrs. E. Stoddard, Secretary, re-elected; Miss Lizzie Striker, Treasurer, re-elected.

Heavy Business.

Transactions in real estate were placed upon record in the County Recorder's office, yesterday, to the amount of $210,000. Evidently the Spring movement in real estate has commenced.

L. B. EDWARDS, who is an old and experienced fire underwriter has taken charge of the Oakland agency of the California Fire Insurance Company of San Francisco and the Royal Canadian Insurance Company of Montreal. These companies have a capital of $7,000,000, and do business outside of any "Board" or combination, and make a rate for every risk. The California is the oldest San Francisco company and has $200,000 invested in Oakland. The Royal Canadian has $100,000 deposited with the State for the protection of policy-holders, and is the only Foreign company having such deposit. For insurance in good companies and at rates proportionate to the risk, call at L. B. EDWARD'S Insurance Agency, 907 Broadway, Oakland, Cal.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES

[Associated Press Dispatches to the "Tribune."]

The Electoral Committees Agree on a Report.

Intimation of the Outlines of the Plan.

A Report Agreed Upon by the Electoral Count Committees.

WASHINGTON, January 17th.—The Senate and House Committees on counting the Electoral vote this evening agreed upon a report which will be signed to-morrow by all the members of both Committees, except Senator Morton and possibly one Democratic Representative. The tribunal for the decision of the controverted questions will be tripartite—one branch of which will be composed of five Justices of the United States Supreme Court. How these Judges are to be selected, or how the Senate and the House branches of the tribunal will be constituted, is not known; but it can be positively stated that the elementary chance will not enter in any way into the formation of the tribunal. Its members are to take a special oath to decide the questions according to the Constitution of the United States and laws made in pursuance thereof. From ascertained facts, that the Judiciary branch of the tribunal will be composed of five members, it is inferred that the two branches of Congress will each be represented on it by five of their respective members; but this is only a matter of inference. On inquiry of members of the two Committees to-night, it is learned that all of them pledged themselves not to speak of the details of the proposed plan for counting the electoral vote; this caution being taken in order that the public might not be misled by verbal statements apart from the exact phraseology of the official report. They say that for the last two weeks the Committees of the two Houses, acting either separately or in joint meeting, have devoted their best energies and judgment and nearly all their time to efforts to arrive at an accommodation. The proceedings have uniformly been marked by courtesy and a patriotic spirit, all striving to allay whatever partisan feeling existed, and to promote the public good. They are very hopeful that both political parties and the country at large will be satisfied with the result of their labors. A bill embodying the plan agreed upon will be accompanied by a brief report setting forth the principles upon which it is based, and will be presented to both houses to-morrow though it will not probably be acted upon immediately. The intelligence that a report has been agreed upon calculated to satisfy both parties, occasion very general satisfaction.

Intimation of the Outlines of the Plan

CHICAGO, January 17th.—The Tribune's Washington special gives the following intimations of what is the plan agreed on by the House and Senate Electoral Committees: The Court will meet as usual; tellers will be appointed, and the Vice-President will open the returns, and those not objected to will be counted; if objected to, the returns will be referred to the Commission announced in the press report. The Justices of the Supreme Court named, are Clifford, Strong, Miller and Field; two Republicans and two Democrats, with a fifth to be chosen in some unknown way. The Senate will have three Republicans and two Democrats, and the House three Democrats and two Republicans. No Ohio or New York Justice will be chosen as the fifth one. Bradley or Davis will doubtless be chosen. This plan gives the greatest satisfaction to both parties to-night, and yet ultra Democrats regard it as a surrender to the Republicans. The plan thus nearly unanimously presented will be without doubt readily adopted in both Houses.

PARSHALL STRIKES BACK.

Suit to be Commenced Against the Oakland Church.

[SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.]

VALLEJO, January 17th.—Rev. Mr. Parshall will begin legal proceedings this week against the Oakland Church to compel it to expunge from its records that portion relating to his expulsion from the church. The ground of the complainant's suit will be the allegation that there was perjury in the trial, and that the verdict was not warranted by the evidence adduced. It is understood that this suit will give the opportunity to develop all the proceedings and testimony at the trial; in fact, to try the case de novo. It will be remembered that no official publication of the trial was made. Its sessions were in secret, and it is claimed that the one report of the testimony which found its way into print, was a garbled and in many parts false statement of the evidence. The proceedings will be brought in an Oakland Court.

The Senatoral Contest in Illinois.

DARING RAILROAD ROBBERY.

That $8,000 Check—The True Story According to a Boston "Traveler" Correspondent—A Nefarious Scheme Which Tilden Denounced and Thwarted.

NEW YORK, January 18th.—The true story of the $8,000 check has been discovered by the New York correspondent to the Boston Traveller, who unfolds the tale as follows: "Your correspondent has just concluded a long interview with Jordan, cashier of the Third National Bank, of this city. He declared that the $8,000 check transaction was undertaken by three members of the Democratic National Committee, who determined to invest their own funds in an endeavor to secure some favor in Oregon; that Tilden knew nothing about it until it appeared in print, and then he denounced it in the most unmeasured terms, sending for Pelton, his Secretary, and threatening to dismiss him from his service, also threatening to take away his position as Secretary of the National Committee. Pelton, thereupon told the whole story. How Scott guaranteed the money; how he, Pelton, went to Jordan and asked Jordan to go to Martin & Bunyon's to issue the check; how Bunyon handed the check over to a man named Dimond, and that finally the checks were drawn, neither of which succeeded. Tilden denounced them as foolhardy scoundrels, trifling with his interests and reputation, and ended by temporarily suspending Pelton from his service. The difficulty is to make the public believe such a story, I told Jordan, but he assures me that it is an absolute fact, and that he is now suffering Tilden's displeasure because he undertook to get money sent to Oregon.

Souvenir of the Fast Trip Across the Continent.

NEW YORK, January 18th.—In commemoration of the fast trip across the continent made by Jarrett & Palmer last June, Samuel Carpenter, Passenger Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was yesterday presented with a souvenir in the shape of a book containing fac similes of the tickets used on the various roads, handsomely engraved and enclosed in a massive silver case.

Daring Railroad Robbery.

CHICAGO, January 18th. Three men masked entered the outgoing express car on the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis Railroad last night as the train stopped at the Burlington crossing inside the city limits. They hastily overpowered the express messenger and baggage-man and went through the safe which contained about twenty-five thousand dollars in valuables, but in their hurry did the work so bunglingly that they left behind all except a package for Springfield, Ill., containing about $143 and some drafts for collection. They left the train after it had gone about eight blocks, and have not yet been discovered.

LATER.

CHICAGO, January 18th.—Three men have just been arrested charged with robbery. The detectives have been on their track for some hours.

INFLUENCES.

The southern bird, which, swift in airy speed,
Toward ruder regions wings its careless way,
Wafts from its plumage oft a floating seed,
Unheeded relic of some tropic day.

And lo! a wonder! on the spot beneath
The tiny germ asserts its mystic power;
With sudden bloom illumes the rugged heath,
And bursts at once to fragrance, light, and flower.

All the sad woodland flushes at the sight:
The brook, which murmured, sparkles now and sings;
The cowslips watch, with yearning, strange delight,
The bird which shed such glories from its wings,

Watching it hover onward free and far;
Breathing farewell with restless doubt and pain.
What were a heaven with but one only star?
Must this be all? Will it not come again?

While the new lily, lonely in her pride,
Sighing through silver bells, repeats the strain,
Longing for sister blossoms at her side,
And whispering soft, Will it not come again?
—Charles Carroll.

"NON EST."

A Complaining Witness "Jumps the Town."

Two or three days ago one Wm. Tarpy of Oakland, appeared at the City Hall and swore out a complaint charging battery against Wm. Delany of San Francisco. Delany was arrested and his trial set for this morning in the Police Court. When the case was called it was reported that Tarpy had suddenly left the city yesterday, although he was subpœnaed to appear this morning to testify in the case. The charge against Delany was dismissed, and a bench warrant issued for the arrest of Tarpy to appear and answer why he should not be fined for a contempt of Court.

San Francisco Grand Jurors.

The following Grand Jurors were drawn yesterday by the County Judge, County Clerk and Sheriff. Of the following thirty names a Grand Jury of twenty-four will be empanelled on Monday. The list consists of Abraham Block, Monroe Ashbury, H.H. Bancroft, William F. Whittier, David D. Shattuck, H. L. King, Fred K. Mason, Edward Bosqui, B. B. Redding, Jerome Lincoln, Isaac Swain, Andrew B. Forbes, Claus Spreckles, Marcus D. Boruck, S. L. Mastick, Charles E. McLean, E. N. Torrey, Henry Dutton, James R. Bolton, Joseph Sedgley, Samuel Crim, George T. Hawley, Oliver Eldridge, Charles Goodball, Adolphus Hollub, James Phelan, Andrew J. Pope, David Porter, Robert Bragg, and John F. Snow. The list comprises six ex-supervisors, a number of millionaires, and all are well-known citizens.

Thistleton Convicted.

George Thistleton, the notorious publisher of the Jolly Giant, was yesterday convicted on a charge of libel, preferred by Flanagan & Gallagher, undertakers, doing business on Market street. The defence admitted the publication, but claimed that it was published without malice toward the parties named in the article. After argument, the case was submitted to the jury. After an absence of three-quarters of an hour, the jury returned into Court with a verdict of "guilty as charged in the indictment." Counsel for defendant made a motion in arrest of judgment. Although Thistleton has frequently been tried in this city and San Francisco, for outrageous libels, this is the first instance in which a conviction has been obtained.

SAN FRANCISCO BREVITIES.

Eighty Chinamen left on the "Oceanic" for Hongkong on Tuesday, their blouses all well-lined with trade dollars.

The pilot who, owing to stress of weather, was carried off the other day on the ship "Annie Fish," was brought back by an inward-bound vessel.

S. W. Holladay has recovered judgment in the Twelfth District Court against Charles Hare for $5,078 50, for professional services as counsel in prosecuting Alabama claims and recovering $67,000.

The Puget Sound Manufacturing Company has incorporated with $10,000 capital, to operate in Washington Territory. The Trustees are Louis Johns, David F. Schulte, E. P. Flint, G. H. Kellogg and W. K. Flint.

On November 3d, during the voyage of the ship "Montgomery Castle" to this port, William Curwen, a boy, fell from the jibboom overboard and was drowned. He was a native of Liverpool and 16 years of age.

The hail storm caused a serious commotion at the California Theater last evening. The noise made by the little ice pellets on the tin roof brought the performance to a stand still, and Mrs. Florence fled from the stage in alarm, not used to the ways of the country, and thinking that nothing less than an earthquake could make such an uproar.

Supervisor Wise intends to submit a novel proposition to the Board of Supervisors at their next meeting which contemplates the utilization of the prisoners in the County Jail. The design is to tunnel Broadway hill, a project which has been variously suggested and considered for years by property-owners on the other side of the hill, who think that the scheme would go far to enhance the value of their property in opening ready communication with the business portion of the city.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of John R. Lockwood as Register at Susanville, Cal.

It is said the Western Union managers will soon formally surrender all telegrams desired by both parties.

The New York Times' Trenton special thinks it more than possible that Phelps, Republican, will be elected Senator from New Jersey.

James Gordon Bennett and four friends arrived at Jacksonville, (Fla) yesterday and went to the St. James Hotel, but left shortly after and went on board a yacht.

A Springfield (Ill.) dispatch says: It is probable, if Logan is not elected to-morrow, that the Democrats will unload Palmer and nominate Judge Davis. The last ballot yesterday stood: Logan, 100; Palmer, 89; Davis, 6; Anderson, 7; Haines, 1; Parish, 1. Adjourned.

Wall street yesterday was much excited by the news that a bogus check for $64,000, purporting to be drawn by the New York Life Insurance Company on the Union Trust Company, and bearing the same number and date as another for $150,000, had been presented and paid and subsequently found to be a forgery.

The Director of the Mint at Brussels, Belgium, has made a proposition to coin silver for the United States Government. He states that the Mints of Europe are closed against silver, and the European market is in a deplorable condition, so he thinks by using houses in Brussels, Paris and London for purchasing bullion and coining it at his Mint, great stability would be given to the silver market, and the United States would thereby be able to coin trade dollars to an extent sufficient to control India and China exchanges. He is further of the opinion that American silver mining interests would also be promoted by the acceptance of his proposition.

Mr. Robert Buchanan, who has written some very good poetry and some very poor prose, is now preparing a long poem more ambitious in character than any he has yet attempted. The charm of his romance, "The Shadow of the Sword," which has just been published, is said to be due to the profound love of nature.

W. J. GURNETT, Vice-President.

This land is situated about eight miles from Oakland at the head of the San Pablo Valley, which is justly celebrated for the salubrity of its climate, its pure waters and natural beauties.
The San Pablo creek runs entirely through it, from South to North. Into this creek flow numberless smaller streams of clear, pure water, the banks of all affording the most elegant building sites possible to imagine. The great California necessity—plenty of clear, pure water—is here as pure and plentiful as the air we breathe, and can never be wrested from us by any monopoly.
Its topography is gracefully undulating. The soil is rich and mellow. Natural shade trees abound.
We have also Mineral Springs, whose waters possess the medicinal qualities peculiar to the celebrated Lytton, Gilroy and Harbin Springs, heretofore neglected because so near home.
Within five years it will be reached by railroad in sixty minutes from San Francisco.
It will possess a Hotel equal to any outside of that city, and, surrounded by hundreds of beautiful homes, will become the greatest resort for all in search of health or pleasure.
We believe this land, now offered at Fifty Dollars per Acre, will at that time readily sell for five hundred.
Subscriptions will be received in San Francisco, by BRYANT & TAYLOR, 812 California street;
JOHN D. YOST, Of H. S. Crocker & Co., 401 and 403 Sansome st.;
